Our building is on the corner of West Way and Church Way, previously a Barclays office. It is the red brick building to your right, on Church Way, as you face the Tesco Metro and Iceland.

For parking we recommend the following options:

- The two hour free parking bays around the precinct. This includes parking on Elms parade (opposite the Seacourt Bridge Pub) and in the West Way shopping centre car park (behind Iceland and Tesco). You can access the West Way shopping centre car park either via the Westminster Way entrance or via Church Way, off the Arthray road.
- We have 3 marked spaces in the St Peter and St Pauls church car park, on West Way. These cannot be reserved. There is one entry point to this car park and one exit point. Once parked, follow the small path towards Elms parade shops and then turn right into Church Way. The main building entrance is then on your right and the Wren Sterling office is on the first floor. The building also houses other businesses, so if you can see a large "Portfolio Properties" sign, from the street, you are in the right place.
